

Allison Williams, Attorney

Allison Williams,
Attorney

Allison is an actively licensed member of the Washington and Oregon State Bar Associations. After graduating cum laude from Lewis and Clark Law School in 2007, Allison spent over four years prosecuting criminal cases at the Multnomah County District Attorney's Office in Portland, Oregon. During that time, she handled a caseload that included general misdemeanors with an emphasis on DUI cases, misdemeanor and felony domestic violence cases and felony drug cases. Following her time as a prosecutor, she launched a small private firm focusing on criminal defense and personal injury. Allison has extensive experience as a trial attorney, having tried nearly 100 cases to a judge or jury in the criminal and civil arenas. Throughout her time spent in the courtroom, she has worked with numerous victims, witnesses, expert witnesses, doctors and police officers.

Allison joined Rampart Group in 2018. Her legal background gives her a unique ability to understand the goals and challenges of an attorney preparing a case for trial. She enjoys speaking with witnesses and is able to communicate her investigative findings with the perspective of a trial attorney, maximizing her effectiveness for her clients.
